JudoScotland

The exciting world of judo is more than just an Olympic sport, for many, it's a way of life. Judo is based on founder Jigoro Kano's moral code, which is designed not only to make better judoka but better people. The code is made up of eight values: courtesy, courage, friendship, honesty, modesty, respect, self-control and honour.

JudoScotland is the sportsotland recognised National Governing Body for the Olympic sport of Judo. We represent our members, clubs, individual disciplines and hundreds of qualified, enthusiastic and committed volunteers delivering Judo across Scotland.

JudoScotland provides its members with many benefits to help them enjoy the exciting world of Judo to its full potential.

Why Become a Full JudoScotland Member?

As a full JudoScotland member you will have access to a variety of benefits, however most importantly you will be covered by Personal Accident & Civil Liability insurance should anything happening to yourself or your opponent on the mat.

However membership is not just about insurance, JudoScotland members will benefit from the following:

- Nationally Recognised Grading Scheme (certificates & badges);
- Attend/Enter JudoScotland Events;
- Membership record book;
- Access to Performance Coaching Support (subject to qualification criteria);
- National Team selection(s) Cadet, Junior, Senior & Master;
- Free Membership to the Kai Club (under 8);
- Free subscription to Koka Kids (under 12 years old);
- Come & Meet events;
- Development Events (including 'Skill sCool' & 'Mad About Judo');
- Discounted Coach Education/Revalidation Workshops;
- Initial Training and Continuing Development for Referees and Officials.

First 4 Months FREE

We want to make Judo accessible to whoever wants to take part and as such we are offering everyone in Scotland who is starting Judo for the first time four months FREE provisional membership.

There are many benefits to doing judo. Not only is Judo great fun, a great way of making new friends, it's also a great way of gaining confidence and getting physically fit.

Your FREE provisional membership will allow you to get a real flavour of the sport - fully insured - at your local Judo club, before signing up to a full JudoScotland membership.

After the first four months you can continue on your judo journey by simply renewing your provisional membership to a full JudoScotland membership.

Please note certain membership benefits are unavailable on a provisional JudoScotland membership (e.g. Grading), in order to receive the full range of JudoScotland membership benefits you will need to upgrade. However any time remaining at the point of upgrading will automatically be added onto your first full membership.

So what do you have to lose? Simply fill out the attached membership form and send it to: JudoScotland, EICA, South Platt Hill, Ratho, Newbridge EH28 8AA.

When you are ready to upgrade your 4 month FREE membership, your annual JudoScotland membership will be:
